

Pray Honored for 17 Years of Service to Agape Health Clinic

11.13.2015

Dr. Steve Pray, professor in the SWOSU College of Pharmacy, was recently honored for his 17 years of service as a pharmacist with the Agape Health Clinic in Weatherford. For 13 of those 17 years, Pray served as volunteer director for the clinic that is dedicated to serving people with medical needs throughout western Oklahoma. Dr. Kalie Kerth (left) and Dr. Aimee Henderson are currently serving as pharmacy co-directors. Pray was honored at a recent fundraising meal that generated $10,224.51 for the clinic. A total of $5,224.51 was raised from the meal, and the Masonic Fraternity of Oklahoma matched with a $5,000 gift. All donations go directly to purchase medicines and supplies for clients.
